Take a Hike, Oxford

Date and Time: Saturday, June 1 10:00 am - 2:00 pm

Address: 454779 45 Line, Beachville ON ·

Save the date for this local celebration of National Trails day at four locations in Oxford County. Organised by Oxford County Trails Council with help from sponsors and volunteers, this festival will showcase local trails under the banner, “Take a Hike, Oxford!!”.

All four locations, open from 10am to 2pm, will offer free attractions for all ages and abilities to combine fun with a deeper appreciation of our natural environment and health benefits available to trails users.

Parking is free but please bring your water bottle, sunscreen, bug spray, snacks and outdoor footwear. Sanitation and hydration facilities will be available at each location.

Residents of South-West Oxford making a stop at the Oxford Thames River Trail in Beachville will see, first-hand, how your generous support of this trail helps volunteers and other contributors maintain and improve its unique ecosystems for your enjoyment and learning.

Other “Take a Hike, Oxford!!” locations include:

- Herbert Milnes Woodlot Trail, Patullo Ave, Woodstock.
- John Lawson Trail, Wonham St. South, Ingersoll.
- Hickson Trail (North), 99 Lovey’s St., Hickson.
